

Halloween: The Lovely Miss Weasley

Amanda Hawkins

THE LOVELY MISS WEASLEY

Yeah, I'm dressed like a girl. So what? It's Halloween.

I'm Ginny, the first girl born into the Weasley clan for seven generations. Like it's any of your business.

The Calculus Club decided to go to the dance as the good guys from Harry Potter. But we were short a girl and I'm the smallest. You do the math.

My Mom took the costume way too seriously. I've been wearing hair extensions for, like, a whole week. And she did too good a job with this makeup; everyone thinks I'm a real girl.

Weird thing is, I've never been more popular. I had to dance with a bunch of guys to stay in character, and some of the popular girls figured out who I am, 'cause they said if I was a real girl I'd already be one of them. I've been hanging with them all night.

So now I'm thinking about telling my parents I'm transgender. You know, that I'm really a girl on the inside.

I mean... wouldn't you?

FIN

BZZZZT

Amanda Hawkins