Mesmerized

Yes, sir. He's still under the influence. He is aware, but cannot respond. He will not be fully awakened until the transformation is complete.

Good. And the surgery I ordered?

Done and done. Breast implants, body sculpting, laser liposuction, permanent removal of all body and facial hair. In form, if not function, he will be fully female.

Excellent. You said he is fully aware of the changes?

Absolutely. He can hear us. The hypnotic state simply inhibits voluntary movement.

Awesome. You hear that, Logan, you bastard? You gonna be a woman now! Who da man, huh? Huh?

You rat bastard... I'll cut you in two for this.

His perm should be dry by now. A body wave, as you instructed. Then we will style his hair. Shoulder length, loose waves, the tips curled.

Just like Laura. That should mess with his mind. God knows, the fool had it coming. She's his late wife, in case you're wondering... my ex.

None of my business, sir.

It's human nature to wonder. Now, those audio files I gave you are to be played through his head day and night, until I say otherwise. 24/7, okay?

Consider it done, Mr. Bond.

By the time he walks out of here next week, he'll think he is a woman named Laura.

If you say so, commander.

I do. But lemme tell ya, the tough part is what comes next--winning her back. That is gonna be a bitch and a half...
